

Wall Scholar Collaborative Project Funding
Climate and Nature Emergency 2022-2023

Application Form

Wall Scholars

Deadline February 17th, 2023 - 5pm

Please complete this form and send it together with, if applicable, your Letters of Support to catalyst.program@pwias.ubc.ca by February 17th 2023.

Please carefully read the Funding Description. Applications will be adjudicated by an interdisciplinary peer review process and should be written for non-specialists (i.e., please avoid technical or field-specific jargon).

Lead PI Information: (Funding will transferred to 1 Wall Scholar as a top up to their Wall Scholar award PG)

Name
Position
UBC Department
UBC Faculty
E-mail address

Collaborators

Please list all key collaborators on the project. Collaborations must be between two or more Wall scholars or other Wall program members. If working with organizations or community partners please attach appropriate Letters of Support with your application.

Funding Stream

I am applying for – select:

- Stream 1 - Seed or match funding for research projects related to Climate & Nature Emergency
- Stream 2 - Events related to Climate & Nature Emergency focused on scholarly, artistic and research collaborations (e.g. academic roundtables and community engagement events) and knowledge translation and mobilization (e.g. videos, resources, open-access courses, larger public-facing events) related to the Climate & Nature Emergency.

Project Proposal

Project Title:

1. Describe your project

2. Describe your budget

3. What is the timeline for your project? Please include milestones.

4. What do you intend to mobilize with this funding in terms of relationship building, widening participation, and or academic outputs and collaborations (research, scholarship, further project funding, public policy, etc.)?

5. Stream 1 only – Seed or Match Funding

Which funding agency are you applying to for further or core funding and what is the timeline of that funding?

Guiding Principles

6. Select which principles are applicable to your application and explain how your project aligns with each principle.

Ethical Collaborations: Transdisciplinary, intergenerational, and community relationship building grounded on trust, respect, reciprocity, consent, and accountability.

Explain how:

Intellectual Depth: (self)Critical and relational rigour in moving beyond common patterns of simplistic solutions, paternalistic forms of engagements and ethnocentric ideals of sustainability, justice, and change.

Explain how:

Reparative Redistribution: Allocation of resources prioritising populations most affected by the Climate and Nature Emergency and precarity, and research areas of greatest urgency and impact guided by principles of reparation.

Explain how:

Engagement with the Indigenous Strategic Plan: Deepening understanding of settler responsibilities and supporting the aspirations of Indigenous scholars and communities.

Explain how:

Attachments

- Letter/s of Support from organization community partner/s

Thank you for your application, successful applicants will be notified by March 3rd, 2023.

Contact Information

Peter Wall Institute for Advanced Studies
6331 Crescent Road, Vancouver, BC Canada
Email: catalyst.program@pwias.ubc.ca